

---

CURRENTLY PENDING TRUMP JUDICIAL NOMINEES AND *BROWN V. BOARD OF EDUCATION

---

On May 13, 2019, The Leadership Conference on Civil and Human Rights sent a letter to the Senate expressing opposition to the confirmation of all judicial nominees who decline to state unequivocally that the landmark and unanimous Supreme Court decision in Brown v. Board of Education was correctly decided.

Below is the list of currently pending judicial nominees who failed to state that Brown was correctly decided, as of September 16, 2019. This list has been updated to add nominees who were previously asked and remove nominees who have clarified their testimony or are no longer pending before the Senate.

Currently Pending Trump Judicial Nominees Who Declined to State that Unanimous Brown v. Board of Education Ruling Was Correctly Decided:

1. Gary Brown (Eastern District of New York)
2. Diane Gujarati (Eastern District of New York)
3. Eric Komitee (Eastern District of New York)
4. Lewis Liman (Southern District of New York)
5. David Novak (Eastern District of Virginia)
6. John Sinatra (Western District of New York)
7. Matthew Solomson (U.S. Court of Federal Claims)
8. Mary Kay Vyskocil (Southern District of New York)