LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE ISSUES VOTING RECORD FOR 97TH CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, D.C., OCTOBER 25--The Leadership Conference on Civil Rights, a coalition of 160 major national organizations representing Blacks, Hispanic and Asian Americans, labor, the major religious groups, women, the handicapped, the aged, minority businesses and professions, seeking to advance civil rights through enactment and enforcement of federal legislation, released today its Voting Record for the 97th Congress.

Five Senators and 61 Representatives compiled a perfect voting record, while seven Senators and 27 Representatives voted wrong on every key vote tabulated by the Conference. Comparison figures for the 96th Congress show that 11 Senators and 77 Representatives scored 100 percent, while five Senators and 115 Representatives compiled zero ratings.

The bi-annual report card reflects the coalition's concerns for civil rights and social welfare legislation. Among the issues included in the current Voting Records are the Voting Rights Act Extension, school desegregation, fair housing, food stamps, court-stripping, legal services, civil rights appropriations, balanced budget constitutional amendment, education of the handicapped and immigration reform.

The tabulations indicated that the House is evenly divided with half of the Representatives scoring 50 percent or better. In the Senate, 52 Senators scored above 50 percent.

In releasing the report, Ralph G. Neas, Executive Director of the Conference, stated that "Despite the concerted efforts by the Radical Right, both in the Reagan Administration and on Capitol Hill, the record of the 97th Congress on civil rights issues thus far has been generally good. Indeed, the Congress enacted a strong Voting Rights Act Extension for 25 years and then blocked the passage of the anti-civil rights measures proposed by extremists in the House and in the Senate.

"The successes of the 97th Congress are attributable to several factors. First, they confirm that the 1980 elections were not a mandate to weaken or repeal our civil rights laws. Second, strong bipartisan leadership on civil rights issues has emerged on both sides of the Hill. This was especially true in the battles to extend a strong Voting Rights Act, to reverse the Administration's decision to grant tax exempt status to schools which discriminate on the basis of race, and to defeat the amendments offered by Senator Jesse Helms to restrict the jurisdiction of the Federal courts over certain constitutional issues.

"Third, and most important, have been the massive coalition efforts mounted on behalf of these successful struggles to defend the Constitution. They took place not only in Washington, D.C., but also, more significantly, in virtually every Congressional district in the country. These national grassroots campaigns, the broadest and most comprehensive since the mid 1960's, have been the exciting and untold story of the 97th Congress.

"However, while it appears that the Radical Right has reached its zenith with respect to representation in the Congress, we must state emphatically that their assaults on the Constitution are far from over. Allied with their counterparts in the Reagan Administration, they still pose the very real threat of a second Post-Reconstruction. Therefore, as we seek to make further progress, we must also continue to rewin battles fought long ago in order to preserve the accomplishments of the past twenty-five years.

"Most assuredly, those committed to equality of opportunity for all our citizens cannot afford to be complacent for a moment. We must remain ever vigilant. And, most importantly, we must continue to work together as a coalition as hard and as effectively as we did in this Congress."

Copies of the Voting Record are available at the Conference headquarters, 2027 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C.

A CIVIL RIGHTS VOTING RECORD

FOR THE

97TH CONGRESS

JANUARY 1981 - OCTOBER 1982

SENATE

KEY ISSUES

1. SCHOOL DESEGREGATION

Starting in June of 1981, Senator Lowell Weicker (R-Conn) began his efforts to delay action on an amendment to S. 951, the Department of Justice Authorization Bill, proposed by Senators Jesse Helms (R-N.C.) and Bennett Johnston (D-La) which would prohibit federal courts from ordering busing as well as lead to the possible reopening of existing busing orders. On September 16, 1981 the Senate by a vote of 61-36 invoked cloture on the Helms-Johnston Amendment.

2. SCHOOL DESEGREGATION

After an heroic nine month battle by Senator Weicker to prevent the Helms-Johnston Amendment from going over to the House of Representatives, the Senate finally passed S. 951, the Justice Department Authorization Bill containing the Amendment. Final passage was 57-37 on March 2, 1982.

Right -- Against tabling

Wrong -- For tabling

12. COURT-STRIPPING

A procedural motion by Senator Jesse Helms (R-N.C.) as part of his attempt to strip the federal courts of their jurisdiction over *school prayer was blocked by a successful move to table the motion. It passed 51-48 on September 23, 1982.

Right -- For tabling

Wrong -- Against tabling

Right -- Against

Wrong -- For

14. IMMIGRATION - KENNEDY AMENDMENT

The Conference supported an amendment by Senator Edward M. Kennedy (D-Mass) to preserve existing laws and regulations in the H-2 temporary worker program. The Amendment was rejected 28-62 on August 13, 1982.

Right -- For

Wrong -- Against

15. IMMIGRATION - HELMS AMENDMENT

*The Conference did not take a position on the issue of school prayer, but has a strong position against any legislation, regardless of substantive content, which would restrict the jurisdiction of Federal Courts over constitutional issues.
