

Policing Campaign Director

The Leadership Conference on Civil and Human Rights

The Leadership Conference Education Fund

Washington, D.C.

The Leadership Conference on Civil and Human Rights and The Leadership Conference Education Fund seek a Policing Campaign Director. The Policing Campaign Director will lead a new multifaceted advocacy campaign to advance 21st century best practices in policing. The campaign will work to ensure transparency and accountability in policing; advocate for the adoption and implementation of data driven reforms; and employ strategic communications to educate the public about the policy improvements necessary to build trust, legitimacy, and public safety.

The Leadership Conference on Civil and Human Rights, a 501(c)(4) organization, is a coalition of more than 200 national organizations that promotes and protects civil and human rights in America. The Leadership Conference has coordinated national lobbying efforts on behalf of every major civil rights law since 1957. Learn more at www.civilrights.org. The Leadership Conference Education Fund, a 501(c)(3) organization, builds public will for federal policies that promote and protect civil and human rights in the United States. Founded in 1969 as the education and research arm of The Leadership Conference, The Education Fund's campaigns inform, educate and empower local, state and national leaders to advance and protect civil and human rights and progressive change in the United States. To learn more about The Education Fund, visit www.leadershipconferenceedfund.org.

This individual will lead, implement, and provide daily management of the organization's new signature policing campaign. The individual will ensure that all goals and objectives are met and provide strategic support and direct resources to campaign initiatives at the state and local level. This person will also be responsible for building and managing a diverse coalition of partners to advance campaign goals and objectives in identified jurisdictions. The individual will represent the campaign and communicate about the program to a broader community of interested organizations, individuals, and the media.

Ideal candidates for this position will share our commitment to the advancement of civil and human rights. The individual will have a J.D. or related Master's/other advanced degree and at least 10 years of experience in work related to public policy, management, and the organization and implementation of advocacy campaigns. The individual must have expertise in advancing policing reform and a demonstrated knowledge of the field, advocacy, and demonstrated coalition experience. Finally, the candidate must have strong interpersonal, planning, and coordinating skills and excellent written and oral communications skills.

Excellent benefits! Salary will be commensurate with experience.

To apply, e-mail resume, cover letter detailing your fit with the position's responsibilities, and salary requirements to: personnel@civilrights.org with Policing Campaign Director in the subject line. Only applications submitted by email will be considered.

The Leadership Conference and The Education Fund provide equal employment opportunities to all employees and applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age or disability.