Dear Representative:

On behalf of The Leadership Conference on Civil and Human Rights, a coalition charged by its diverse membership of more than 200 national organizations to promote and protect the civil and human rights of all persons in the United States, we urge you to vote for the Equality Act (H.R. 5) and against any motion to recommit (MTR) the bill. The Equality Act would ensure that LGBTQ people are protected against discrimination in housing, credit, education, and employment, and it would clarify and strengthen public accommodation antidiscrimination laws for all people. Because the Equality Act is a top priority for the civil and human rights community, The Leadership Conference will include your votes on the MTR and final passage in our voting record for the 116th Congress.

The Leadership Conference firmly believes that passage of the Equality Act is a crucial step in fulfilling our nation's commitment to the civil and human rights of all people. Despite the great strides in LGBTQ rights in recent decades, millions of LGBTQ individuals are still subject to discrimination and uncertainty over whether their rights will be protected. Our work is not complete until every person in America is able to earn a living, further their education, put a roof over their heads, and engage in public life without the fear of harassment or discrimination based upon who they are or who they love. Currently, there is a patchwork of different state laws with varying levels of protections against discrimination. Congress must act to pass the Equality Act because no one's civil rights should depend on their zip code.

The recent decision by the Supreme Court to consider several employment discrimination cases next term does not obviate the need for Congress to pass the Equality Act. Regardless of how the Court acts, only the Equality Act contains the comprehensive federal antidiscrimination protections that LGBTQ people – like all people – deserve.

As Congress considers this important bill, we are committed to ensuring that the Equality Act does solely what it is intended to do: clarify and strengthen existing federal civil rights laws for every person in America. We will strongly oppose any effort to weaken either the Equality Act or any existing law that it would amend.

Later this week, we urge you to vote against any motion to recommit, and for final passage of the Equality Act. No person should face discrimination simply because of who they are or who they love, and it is time for Congress to make that abundantly clear. If you have any questions, please reach out to Rob Randhava at randhava@civilrights.org or 202-466-3311.

Sincerely,
