Support the Rights of All Students and Parents
Support H.Res. 219, Oppose H.R. 5

Dear Member of Congress,

On behalf of The Leadership Conference on Civil and Human Rights, a coalition charged by its diverse membership of more than 230 national organizations to promote and protect the civil and human rights of all persons in the United States, and the 252 undersigned organizations, we urge you to support the rights and inclusion of all students and parents in our public school system by supporting H.Res. 219, the Bill of Rights for Students and Parents, and opposing H.R. 5, the Parents Bill of Rights Act. As the civil and human rights community, we have fought for more than 100 years for the rights of all students and parents to attend and be fully included in well-resourced public schools that prepare them for their futures.¹ The Bill of Rights for Students and Parents sets forth a vision respecting and honoring the dignity and worth of every child — a vision supported by the overwhelming majority of parents in the country. In contrast, H.R. 5 seeks to undermine the relationship between parents and teachers, to facilitate book banning, and to make our most marginalized children less safe.

During this time in which proponents of discrimination and exclusion are creating policies and legislation to harm students and undermine the learning environment for everyone, support for developing supportive, inclusive, safe, and responsive public schools could not be more important. In a recent national survey, 80 percent or more of parents said that it was very or extremely important that their child be honest, ethical, hardworking, helpful to those in need, and accepting of people who are different from them. It is these parental values that are reflected in H.Res. 219.² No matter our color, background, or zip code, we want our kids to have an education that imparts honesty about who we are, integrity in how we treat others, and courage to do what's right.

Similarly, 80 percent of parents want to protect the ability of young people to have access to books from which they can learn about and understand different perspectives and help them grow into adults who can think for themselves.³ H.Res. 219 recognizes this near-universal view that censorship and book banning “undermine the education of all students, take choices away from all students and their families, and limit the opportunities of parents, families, and children to access an education and think critically about the world around them.”⁴

H.R. 5 seeks to create detrimental harm to our most marginalized children, erase the complicated and difficult history of our nation, and damage parent and teacher relationships. Instead of promoting the values and priorities that the overwhelming majority of parents from all backgrounds and neighborhoods share, the bill would undermine important public health and child well-being data by effectively eliminating anonymous surveys of students; would harm those most vulnerable LGBTQ+ youth who are unable to come out to even their own parents by forcibly outing them;⁵ would embolden a small group of activists who are using book bans to selectively stamp out the perspectives of Black people, LGBTQ+ people, and other historically marginalized groups;⁶ and would bog schools down with reporting and commenting requirements that bear no relationship to proven parent and family engagement practices.⁷

We ask that you strongly support H.Res. 219, strongly oppose H.R. 5, and reject attacks on the rights of all students and parents to attend and be fully included in well-resourced public schools that prepare them

⁵ Many LGBTQ youth find support and acceptance when they choose to come out to their parents; forcibly outing an LGBTQ student on a bureaucratically imposed timeline does not support these students or their parents and has been deemed a privacy violation (see Nguon v. Wolf, in which a federal court held that Nguon had a “Constitutionally protected privacy right with respect to disclosure of her sexual orientation” to a parent <https://www.aclu.org/cases/nguon-v-wolf>). Forcibly outing a student may present a significant risk to their health and safety, including housing stability. LGBTQ+ young people are more than twice as likely (120 percent more likely) to experience homelessness, compared to non-LGBTQ+ young people. See, for example: “Missed Opportunities: Youth Homelessness in America”. Voices of Youth Count. (2017).
